Elementary Programs

KidSmart (1st-6th grades)

KidSmart is an after school academic enrichment program for youth in 1st-6th grades living in East Palo Alto or eastern Menlo Park. The program includes homework help, academic skill building, computers, life-skill development, and special short-term classes or clubs.

Bible Clubs (1st-6th grades)

Bible Clubs are weekly small groups where youth learn about God, make friends, and have fun. During Bible Club, youth discover biblical truths and how they can be applied to their lives.

Teen Programs

TeenWorks (7th-12th grades)

TeenWorks is an after-school homework program that offers study hall, one-on-one tutoring and special interest classes for junior high and high school students. TeenWorks provides a productive, quiet place to study and grow academically and personally.

StreetWorkz (7th-12th grades)

StreetWorkz is BCM's youth group for middle school (7th-8th) and high school (9th-12th) students. During the weekly large group meetings, youth spend time with friends, play games, and meet for worship, prayer and a brief Biblical teaching. Teen Bible studies are also offered on a weekly basis where youth have a chance to explore scripture and deepen their relationship with God.
